Application for Section Status: Anthropology of Religion Section

March 17, 1997

To the Executive Board of the American Anthropological Association:

We the undersigned wish to form an Anthropology of Religion Section of the American Anthropological Association. This application details the background, goals and mission, initial dues and services, and proposed future activities of the section. Attached to this application are the proposed Bylaws of the new Anthropology of Religion Section (henceforth AR-Section), and a list of names and addresses of 435 prospective members.

Background

Over the last five years, a number of anthropologists have worked to create an Anthropology of Religion Section. During an AAA moratorium on new sections in 1993 and 1994, two groups arose from these efforts: The Society for the Anthropology of Religion (SofAR), an independent non-profit organization now outside the purview of the AAA, and the Anthropology of Religion Interest Group (ARIG), presently an official interest group of the AAA. Subsequently a third group of scholars (ARS), organized by Sarah Caldwell and Roy Rappaport, began efforts to form a section. At the annual AAA meetings in November 1996, representatives of all three groups (SofAR, ARIG, and ARS) met and agreed to coordinate their efforts to reach everyone's goal of forming an Anthropology of Religion Section. A joint committee (henceforth the Joint Committee) of equal numbers of members from each group was created to oversee the integration of these three groups and to draft the application and proposed bylaws.

Mission and Goals

The mission of AR-Section is to foster anthropological scholarship on all aspects of religion, and to disseminate this scholarship to our colleagues and the general public. This goal will be achieved through a variety of means, including, but not limited to: sponsorship of sessions at the annual AAA meetings, management of an electronic discussion group devoted to the anthropology of religion, holding of external conferences, and publication of a periodic Newsletter. Eventually AR-Section may wish to start a scholarly journal for the Anthropology of Religion, with the consensus of the membership and upon approval of the AAA. AR-Section may also establish an annual prize or distinguished lecture in the anthropology of religion.

Initial Dues and Services

In the first year of its existence, AR-Section will charge dues of $15 for Regular and Associate Members, $10 for students. The electronic discussion group already established by ARIG will continue to be maintained by AR-Section. AR-Section will publish a biannual Newsletter as a service to members of AR-Section, assuming responsibility for the biannual Newsletter now published by SofAR. AR-Section will organize a regular external conference, taking charge of the annual external conference currently organized by SofAR. AR-Section will review and sponsor sessions for the AAA meetings in 1998, as permitted by the AAA Executive Board.

Upon granting of official Section status by the AAA (after the initial probationary period), AR-Section may find it necessary to raise the member dues in order to realize the goals and provide the services established by AR-Section members and Executive Committee.
Rules of Procedure, Interim Governance, and Membership Roster

The proposed Bylaws of AR-Section are attached to this application as a separate document. Also attached is a list of the names and addresses of prospective members of AR-Section.

The undersigned group of twelve will function as the AR-Section Executive Committee, the interim governing body of AR-Section, pending section status approval by the AAA Administrative Advisory Committee. See the enclosed, one-page attachment which describes the Interim Governance Plan.

The proposal just outlined has generated significant enthusiasm among scholars in the United States and abroad, both within anthropology and in other fields. Given the historical commitment of anthropology to the study of religion, the proposed Section fills a longstanding need within the structure of the AAA. At the same time, this initiative offers new opportunities to attract non-anthropologists to the AAA and to strengthen linkages with other disciplines. It is the sincere hope of the Organizing Committee that the AAA will approve this application for Section Status at the next Executive Board Meeting.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Sarah Caldwell at the Department of Anthropology, 1020 LSA Building, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1382, Ph. 313-764-9941, email scaldwel@umich.edu. As coordinator of the Joint Committee, she will be glad to provide whatever further information you may require.

Sincerely,

Interim Governance Plan
Proposed Bylaws of the Anthropology of Religion Section
Prospective Membership Roster
Interim Governance Plan for the Proposed Anthropology of Religion Section

1. The application for Section status, submitted to the American Anthropological Association (AAA) will be signed by an equal number of representatives from the Anthropology of Religion Interest Group (ARIG), the Society for the Anthropology of Religion (SofAR), and the Anthropology of Religion Section Organizing Committee (ARS Committee). These representatives will constitute the Interim Executive Committee of the Section, as explained below.

2. The Interim Executive Committee will serve as the executive body of the proposed Section in the interim period between preparation of the Section application and AAA approval of full Section status, the latter anticipated for November 1998.

3. The Interim Executive Committee will consist of twelve representatives, with ARIG, SofAR, and the ARS Committee each entitled to appoint four representatives. One of the twelve representatives will serve as Coordinator until such time as the Interim Executive Committee appoints its own officers. Upon the appointment of said officers, the Coordinator will step-down.

4. The first order of business of the Interim Executive Committee will be to appoint its own four officers—Interim President, Interim Vice President, Interim Secretary, and Interim Treasurer, by majority vote of the twelve representatives, with the candidates to be chosen from among the twelve representatives. The Interim Executive Committee will appoint its own officers within eight weeks of the submission of the Section application to AAA.

5. The Interim Executive Committee will appoint a Nominations Committee for the Section's first formal election. The activities of this Nominations Committee will be governed by the relevant provisions of the Section Bylaws.

6. The Interim Executive Committee will hold a Business Meeting in November 1997 at the Annual AAA Meeting in Washington, D.C.

7. As soon as permitted under AAA policies and procedures, the Section will hold formal elections as specified in the Section Bylaws, thereby replacing the Interim Executive Committee with a duly-elected Executive Committee and a duly elected set of officers.
